THALLA.— Monday, Wednesday, Friday, opera, BORTEL'S greatest success, FOSTILLON; Tuesday, JUNERMANN, SEARSIG.

Prominent Business Houses. The necessity of having a commercial lawyer of standing, ability, and reputs, to determine the many important questions continually arising in our District Courts affecting the rights and property of all classes, is apparant to every one.

It is, therefore, necessary to have bonest and upright Justices; and we take great pleasure in endorsing the momination of JOBN J. ADAMS. the candidate for Justice of the District Court for the Third Judical District Holding high rank in his prefeasion, he experience among the commercial community, and his active and proficein services while in Congresa qualify him as being especially competent to occupy the position.

SURROGATE DANIEL G. ROLLINS For Justice of the Supreme Court. FRIENDS OF MR. ROLLINS SPEAK FOR HIM. Prominent Members of the Bar Urge Law-

The Bar in this city:

NEW YORK, Nov. 2, 1887.

DEAR SIR: To you personally, as a member of the New York Bar, we beg leave to submit the following:

Daniel G. Rollina, the present Surrogate, is a candidate following:

Daniel G. Rollina the present Surrogate, is a candidate for the strict of the person of the surrogate, is a candidate for the strict of the surrogate, is a candidate for the strict of the surrogate in the surrogate surrogate in the surrogate surrogate in the surrogate As lawyers we know that he is just what he people believe him to be: and, moreover, we know that as a ju. Y dicial officer he is able, quick, patient and indefatigable. Appearing before him in his court and chambers we have found him secessible always and cordial always, and fair and cellifing rivays. Should Mr. Rollims be alevated to the Supreme Court bench he will go there with that ability and courtesy that we already know and admire in him as Surrogate; and he will go there with that ability and courtesy that we already know and admire in him as Surrogate; and he will go with a technical kn welse and an experience in criminal practice Attorney's office gave him—an experience much to be desired in a Supreme Court Judge at this particular time.

We endorse him, therefore, with the older members of the Bar, to whose labor he has always added great research of his own—with the younger lawyers, who have found him a ready justener and a kind adviser at all times. And we endorse him with our cilents, whom we earnestly advise to you for him. May you do the same, and join heartily with us in securing his election. Mincrely yours.

Have You a Humor of Skin or

IF SO, THE CUTICURA REME-DIES WILL CURE YOU.

I was induced, after all other remedies had failed, to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES on my bey, 4 years of age, who had running sores from his thighs to the ends of his toes. The naits fell off. His arms and face were also covered, and he was a horrible sight. The CUTI-CURA and CUTICURA SOAP were all that I used. Two CURA and CUTICURA SOAP were all that I used. Two days after their use we could see a chance for the beter, and in six weaks the child was perfectly well.

I was then induced to try them furiner, as my wife had what we terimed dry scale tetter, or peritaits, for nearly fitteen years, and I tried everything that I could get hold of, and asked the advice of the most eminent of the profession, but all in vais. It was all over her body, and all over her head and face, the used but one bottle of the RESOLVENT, two boxes of the CUTICURA, and twe cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and in one week from the time she began their use I could see a change for the botter. It is now nearly one year since she stopped using the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and there is no return. I promounce her entirely cured. No one only term. I promounce her entirely cured. No one only those who have the disease and those who are constant-ly about diseased patients can realise the torsure in which they are placed.

I have recommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES to I have recommended the CUTICURA REMEDIES to all whom I have met that were in any way in need of a skin curs. One man to whom I recommended them had suffered for over twelve years and in that time spens nearly $500 to be cured, but nothing helped, and now, after the use of five bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and several boxes of CUTICURA and two cakes of CUTICURA 80AF, rejoices in having found a curs. I have others at present under treatment, and with good prospects. In no case, to my knowledge, have the CUTICURA REMICURE failed.

I take great pleasure in sending this to you, treating that it may prove a blessing to you and to the suffering. DR. L. MILLIRON, Aimball, Brule Co., Dakots.
